

Case Study: Climate Change Adaptation in Kakisa

Melaine Simba – Ka'a'gee Tu First Nation
Andrew Spring – Wilfrid Laurier University

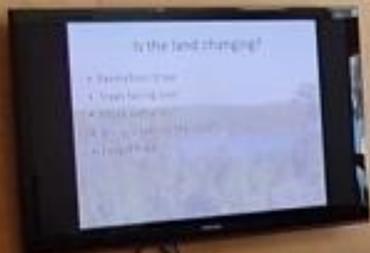

NWTAC – Climate Change Forum
Oct 29, 2018

NO SMOKING

EXIT

KA'A'GEE TU YOUTH CAMP

Kakisa Lake
August 7 – 13, 2017
Ages 12+

The Ka'a'gee Tu First Nation is proud to host a camp for Dehcho youth this summer. The camp will focus on building skills on the land and learning from Elders and traditional knowledge holders. Learn more about research that the community is involved in, first aid and canoe safety.

Have some fun with other youth from around the region!

Activities include:

- Place names and stories with Elders
- Fish and invertebrate sampling with Dr. Heidi Swanson, University of Waterloo
- Archaeological activities with the PWNHC
- Mapping and GIS skills
- Traditional games

For more information contact
Melaine Simba - kaageetu_envcoord@northwestel.net
867-825-2000

PROJECT PARTNERS

WILFRID LAURIER UNIVERSITY
LAURIER
Inspiring Lives.

 CARDBOARD

 CARDBOARD

PLASTICS

 MIXED PAPER

 TIN

 GLASS

PLASTICS

MIXED PAPER

TIN

GLASS

Stack of cardboard boxes

